

GetOutDoorsManager Black Box Test Plan

---

Document Author(s): Jack & Kavir

Date: 12/1/2017

---

Introduction

To run the tests:

1. Right click on GetOutDoorsGUI class in package explorer
2. Select Run As > Java Application

Test ID	Description	Expected Results	Actual Results
Loading Valid File (Jack Wasserman)	Preconditions: The user has started the GetOutDoors application and the GUI has opened. The user selects File -&gt; Open File and opens a valid GetOutDoors data file	The data file is opened, read, and populates the user interface.	The data file is opened, read, and populates the user interface.
Loading Invalid File (Jack Wasserman)	Preconditions: The user has started the GetOutDoors application and the GUI has opened. The user selects File -&gt; Open File and opens an invalid GetOutDoors data file.	An error dialog opens containing the message "Error opening file."	An error dialog opens containing the message "Error opening file."
Saving a File (Jack Wasserman)	Preconditions: The user has started the Get OutDoors application and the GUI has opened. The user selects File -&gt; Save File. The user enters "Wolf4.md" and clicks save	The file is saved in the system as "Wolf4.md" in the location the user has chosen.	An error window pops up containing "File not saved."
Saving an Invalid Filename (Jack Wasserman)	Preconditions: The user has started the GetOutDoors application and the GUI has opened. The user selects File -&gt; Save File. The user enters "" and clicks save	The error dialog opens. The user can click OK to abort the file saving operation	The error dialog opens. The user can click OK to abort the file saving operation
Adding a Valid Park (Jack Wasserman)	Preconditions: The program is running, and the user interface is open. The user is in the trail list pane. The user selects Parks -&gt; New Park from the main menu, and an empty park detail model detail is opened. The user inputs "Kentwood Park", "Contains disc golf course", and "0". The user clicks Add.	The park is then added to the displayed park list with no parks selected in the list.	The park is then added to the displayed park list with no parks selected in the list.

---

Document Revision History

Date	Author	Change Description
		•